GLENDALÉ COUNCILMEMBER SAM CHAVIRA HIGHLIGHTS WESTGATE ENTERTAINMENT DISTRICT ON “GLENDALÉ TODAY”

Program Also Features Information on Arizona’s First State Firefighter Memorial

Glendale, Ariz. — Glendale Councilmember Sam Chavira of the Yucca District shines the spotlight on one of Glendale’s key destination, the Westgate Entertainment District in his new edition of the TV show “Glendale Today”. Councilmember Chavira sits down with Westgate’s Development Manager, Jeff Teetsel, and talks about the many restaurants, shops, nightlife, community events, businesses, concerts and sporting events all located just east of the 101 and Glendale Ave. in a beautiful outdoor setting. Also discussed are some of Westgate’s signature summer happenings such as Bike Night, Hot Rod Night and the July 4th Fireworks Fest and what new and exciting projects are planned for the future.

Also profiled in the program is the effort to complete the state’s first memorial to fallen firefighters and paramedics. Organizer Rick DeGraw shares with Chavira how the tribute came about and what it’s going to take to finish building the monument.

The show begins airing June 19 at 8 p.m. “Glendale Today” is produced by staff from the city-owned TV station Glendale 11. The show will air daily on Glendale 11 as well as online via the city’s video library at www.glendaleaz.com/video and exclusive segments can be found on the city’s YouTube channel at www.youtube.com/MyGlendale11.
